

Student Outcomes Report

Bushnell University values the faithful pursuit of academic excellence and development of purposeful graduates. We are committed to student success as measured by graduation and retention rates. This report outlines the student outcomes for Bushnell University and its comparison group of similar type and size of institutions. This information was compiled using Fall 2024 IPEDS data.

Bushnell Graduation Rate

Undergraduate: 56%

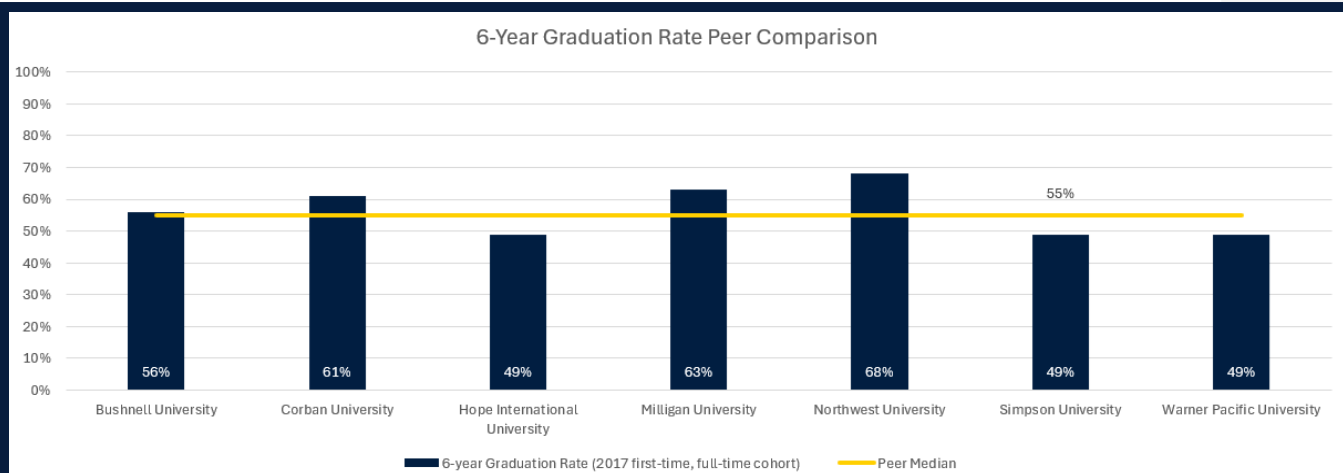

Bushnell Graduation Rate by Gender

Women: 57%

Men: 54%

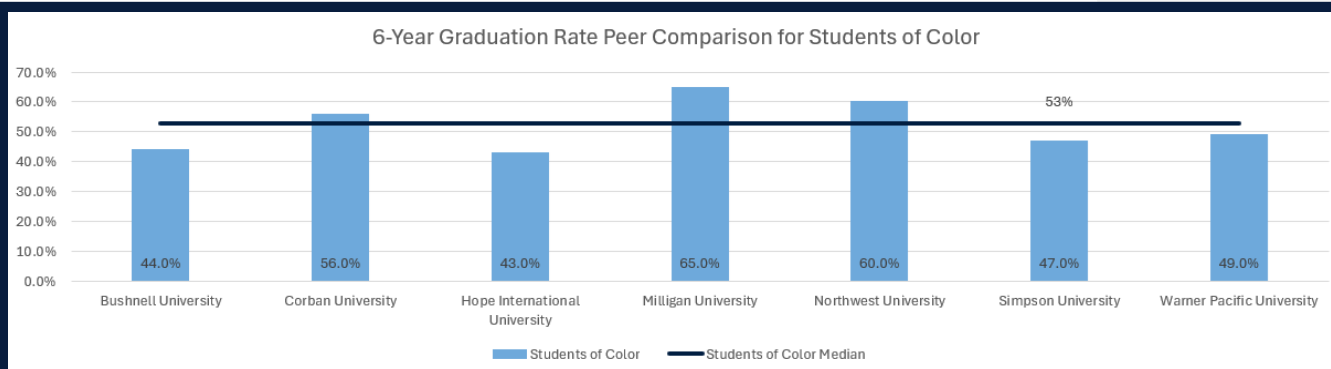

Graduation Rate by Comparison Group

Undergraduate (6-year rate for Fall 2017 Cohort of first-time, full-time students)

Graduation Rate by Race/Ethnicity

Undergraduate (6-year rate for Fall 2017 Cohort of first-time, full-time students)

Bushnell Retention Rate

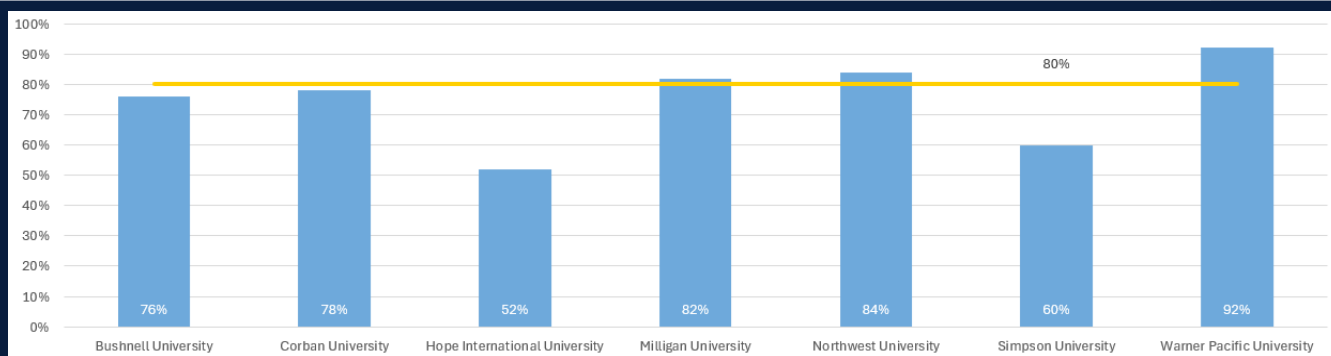

Undergraduate (First to Second Year Bachelor's degree-seeking: Fall 2023 Cohort)

Total: 76%

Students of Color: 75%

Retention Rate by Comparison Group

Undergraduate (First to Second Year Bachelor's degree-seeking: Fall 2023 Cohort)

Comparison Group: Corban University (Salem, OR), Hope International University (Fullerton, CA), Milligan University (Milligan, TN), Northwest University (Kirkland, WA), Simpson University (Redding, CA), and Warner Pacific University (Portland, OR).